Berlin, July 16, N. S.

THE Earl Stanhope arrived here last Night. He has had this Morning Audiences of the King and Queen of Prussia, who were pleased to express very particular Satisfaction on his coming hither. General Mayer, the Danish Envoy, has notified in form to this Court the Treaty of Peace concluded between his Master and the Crown of Sweden.

Copenhagen, July 20, N. S. The Lord Carteret, His Britannick Majesty's Ambassadour, having sent from hence a Messenger to Stockholm, with an Act, formed here at his Danish Majesty's Desire, containing an Explanation of the Treaty between Denmark and Sweden, that Messenger returned hither on the 17th Instant, with the said Act approved and signed by the Swedish Plenipotentiaries, and also with the Ratification of it. Thus the Peace between this Crown and that of Sweden, is, by the Interposition and good Offices of His Britannick Majesty, intirely concluded and settled. The King of Denmark has begun to evacuate Pomerania: Prince Charles's Regiment of two Battallions, commanded by Collonel Schach, is arrived here from Stralsund.

Paris, July 27. The Parliament have not yet begun their Session at Pontoise, but have had some private Meetings to prepare Matters for that Purpose. They are to hold their Assemblies in a Convent of the Cordeliers, where the Clergy used formerly to assemble. The Premier President and others of the Chief of that Body are lodged in a House belonging to the Duke D'Albert, at the Abbey St. Martin, and the rest in the principal Houses of the Town and Country round it. Most of the Presidents are to keep open Table; to enable them to do which, the Government has paid them and the rest of the Counsellours 200000 Livres for Bills of 10000 and 1000 Livres, and has promised to repeat the same Favour in a little time. On the 25th Mr. Law returned from the Palais Royal, where he had continued ever since the Tumult which happened on the 17th, to his own House.

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby give Notice, That a Letter, without Name, with a Bank Bill of 20 l. inclosed, directed to one of their Number, is come to Hand, and that the said Sum is placed to the Account of Old Customs the 21st Instant.

The Court of Directors of the Bank of England give Notice, That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Thursday the 28th Instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, being one of the Quarterly General Courts appointed by their Charter.

The Governour and Company of Undertakers for raising the Thames Water in York Buildings, pursuant to an Order of the last General Court, give Notice, that their Transfer Books will be shut on Wednesday next, being the 27th Instant, and that the Proprietors are to transfer to the Governour and Company one half of the Stock they are respectively possessed of, on or before Saturday the 6th of August next. Attendance will be given for that purpose at their Office in Throgmorton-street, every Day, from Monday the 1st of August till Saturday the 6th of August next, from Ten in the Morning to Twelve, and from Three till Six in the Evening.

The Proprietors of the Receipts given by Mr. John Long, Banker, in Lombard-street, on account of the Copper and Brass Undertaking, are desired forthwith to send to Mr. Samuel Shed, at Joe's Coffee-House in Bucklers-Bury, an Account in Writing under their Hands of the Number on each Receipt in their Possession, the Number of Shares, the Person in whose Name it was first made out, and the Name and Place of Abode of the present Proprietor.
